PRIVACY NOTICE

Introduction

This is the Social Prescribing Qualification Partnership's (SPQP) privacy notice. It tells you how we collect and process your data when you use our website:

<https://www.socialprescribingqualification.org.uk>.

This includes any personal information that you give us – for example when you fill out a form or contact us.

If you have any comments on this privacy policy, please email us using the contact form.

1. How we handle your data

SPQP is committed to processing data in accordance with its responsibilities under the GDPR.

This means that your personal data shall be:

- processed lawfully
- fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals;
- collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes;
- adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed;
- accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay;
- kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed;

2. How we process your data

If you request a course information pack from the SPQP website, you are providing personal data to SPQP. The purpose of our site is to provide course information packs and course information.

This requires SPQP to store your data and respond to any other requests for information that you have made.

We have kept to a minimum the amount of required information you need to pass us to access the services on our site.

3. Analytics data

We work with third party analytics firms which analyse and monitor the activity of visitors to our site for the purposes of continually improving the service we can offer our customers.

A part of these third parties' use of cookies and other tracking technology, they have access to some personal information about our visitors, such as your IP address and approximate location. Please note that no third party analytics firm has access to personal data such as your name, phone number, email address or payment details etc.

4. Partners we may need to share your data with

In order to answer your questions about the course, we may need to pass data to other members in the partnership.

All partners have robust data protection policies of their own. Your data will be managed in-keeping with their own Privacy Policies, which may be different from this one but will still be in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations.

Partners we may need to share your data with:

Bromley by Bow Centre
 Certa Awards
 Conexus Healthcare
 Health Education England
 University of East London

5. Your rights

We are committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. We will only use the information that we collect about you lawfully in accordance with the EU's General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). We may change this policy from time to time by updating this page.

At all times this information is protected in a manner fully in-keeping with the EU's General Data Protection Regulations. We will not share your information with any third parties without first obtaining your consent.

You have the right at any time to request from SPQP:

- What personal data are being processed
- The purposes for which the personal data are being processed
- Who, if anyone, the personal data are disclosed to
- The right to request the deletion of all data we hold about you.

6. How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer (if you consent to us using cookies). Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We only use analytical cookies which enable us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

If at any time you wish to disable our cookies, you may do so through the settings on your browser. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage and delete them, visit www.aboutcookies.org.uk.
